Personals and Dots from Post-Dispatch Correspondents

Post-Dispatch desires correspondents in every community and at every mill village. Letters gladly welcomed. Send in your items.

Hoffman School.

The Hoffman High School will open Monday morning Sept. 6th at nine o'clock.

The faculty this year is composed of the following teachers: Miss Juanita Williams, Principal; Miss Gladys Williams, Assistant Principal; Miss Bessie Baldwin, Intermediate; Miss Lottie Stroupe, Primary.

Everybody is urged to start their children the first day; of course, those between the ages of 8-14 must be present unless providentially hindered.

Juanita Williams, Prin.

Rohanen Public School.

The Rohanen Public School will open Monday, Sept. 13th. Parents are urged to have their children enter the first day. All children between the ages of 8 and 14 years are required by law to be present the first day, and every day during the term.

The following teachers have employed: Miss Pat Monroe, Prin., Mrs. Robert McKenzie, Mrs. Will Gaither, Miss Mamie McDonald, Mrs. John T. Bennett, Miss Sadie Sellers, Miss Mamie Monroe.

Practically all these teachers have been in State Summer Schools during the past summer and the coming year promises to be the best in the history of the school.

Hannah Pickett Items.

Master Tracy Williams is on the sick list, we are sorry to note.

Quite a number of Hannah Pickett folks heard the Hon. Parker speak at the courthouse Saturday night.

There was preaching at the P. H. church Sunday and Sunday night; the next appointment for preaching there is the second Sunday in September.

Mr. Jimmie Lassiter and family visited at A. J. Kelly's Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Sallie Wadkins visited relatives at Hannah Pickett Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Bill Clark and family, from near Hamlet, visited friends and relatives at H. P. Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Annie Hadley passed through our village Sunday; why didn't you stop Mrs. Hadley and see an old friend? We hope you will come back and not pass right on by.

We notice where the editor has asked for correspondents from all the mills. If no body will volunteer, guess he will have to appoint them and mail them a box of stationery.

Hoffman Items.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. McDonald, of Ellerbe, spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. McDonald's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Lathan.

Mr. L. J. Butler returned Friday from a business trip to Washington and Baltimore.

Messrs. John and Tom Mathe-son, of Mt. Gilead, were visitors here Sunday.

Dr. C. D. Dawkins, of Siler City, visited relatives and friends in this section Sunday.

Revival services conducted by the pastor, Mr. Melton, who is assisted by Rev. Mr. Camp, of Shelby, are now being held at the Baptist Church. Much interest is being shown in the meetings.

Quite a crowd of Hoffman people heard the address given by Hon. John J. Parker in Rockingham Saturday evening.

Misses Lida Olive and Bernice Goodwin, of Apex, visited Miss Dora Butler Thursday and Friday.

Miss Annie Gibson, of Laurel Hill, visited friends here Thursday.

Midway Dots.

Mr. Preston Griffin and mother and sister are spending a few days with friends and relatives at Olive Branch.

We were glad to see our old friend, Mrs. H. H. Hancock, Sunday p. m.

The people of Midway welcome Mr. Hart and family, who recently moved to our village.

A LOVING TRIBUTE TO LITTLE MARY HINSON.

Our hearts were greatly saddened when on Monday morning, August 16, 1920, we heard it spoken in tender, loving tones, that the death angel had visited Hoyt Hinson and plucked the young life of dear little Mary.

Mary was a bright, sweet child, and a favorite among her playmates. She always had a smile for everyone and through her cheerful, sunny disposition a ray of light wherever she went.

We all miss her, but must look to Him for comfort who is too wise to err, and too just to be unkind, knowing that "He doeth all things well."

She was eight years of age, and was a faithful member of our Sunday School and Junior Missionary Society.

Our hearts go out in love and sympathy to the bereaved parents, brothers and other loved ones, and we pray that God's spirit may ever abide in their homes.

As David of old said, She cannot come back to us, but we can go to her, and with this thought in our minds may we press onward and upward until we are called to come up higher.
